Madame Yale's
HAIR TONIC

Ladies and Gentlemen. It has been on record that Madame Yale's Exfoliated Hair Tonic is the first and only remedy known to chemical science found to be a genuine hair specific. It has an affinity for the human hair for nourishing and invigorating its growth. It is a complete tonic, as it is well stimulating, its action upon the scalp and hair is truly wonderful, inasmuch as it has never been known in a single instance to fail to cure scalp diseases and to create a luxuriant growth of healthy, beautiful hair. It keeps the natural color to gray hair in nearly every instance. It is not a dye; it is not sticky or greasy, beautifying gray hair, yet it can be used for dark hair dressing, and can be used by ladies gentlemen or children as a daily toilet requisite. Its influence is delightfully soothing.

FOUR MEN DROWNED.

NANTUCKET, MASS., Oct. 12.—A drowning accident whereby four men lost their lives came to light this morning.
Their names are Fred L. Howard of Campello, Conrad Wall of Brockton and Joseph P. Gardner and Thomas Foss of Nantucket. The men tried to get across to the Coahe clubhouse on Coatue island, (a distance of three miles,) last night, in Howard's sailboat. This morning the boat was found bottom up, with no trace of the men.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The two-masted of fourteen months, in which time seventeen whales, giving three hundred barrels of sperm oil, were secured. The vessel cruised between Cape Hatteras

THE CHINESE ISSUE.

A Serious View Taken.

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—A despatch received yesterday from Shanghai says that a very serious view is taken at the headquarters of Count von Waldersee, in Tien Tsin, of the revolutionary movement.
A false alarm at Canton on Oct. 7th led the Chinese officials there to protest against any occupation of Chinese territory. The despatch adds that it is also reported that the Yang-tee viceroys openly affirm they will oppose any advance of the Germans into Shan tung province.

AN IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENT.

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—The proposition of Russia that in case of protracted divergence of views as to equitable indemnity, the matter be submitted to the international court of arbitration at The Hague, is considered here as the most important of the recent developments in the Chinese situation. Most of the papers comment unsympathetically upon the proposition.

DESIGNS ON CANTON.

HONG KONG, Oct. 12.—The reformer Sun-Yat-Sen, says a despatch from Canton, has raised his flag at Wei Chon, on the East river. This act gives rise to considerable excitement in military circles in Canton, as it is thought to have been done with the object of denuding Canton of troops, so the city can be taken.

SUSPICIOUS OF CHINA.

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—The German foreign office is not satisfied with the list of culpables furnished by the Chinese government. "The list is notoriously incomplete," said an influential official today. "It omits at least a score of those who were prominent in the massacre of foreigners." Germany looks upon the report of the empress dowager's death as a new Chinese intrigue.

SENTENCED IN DOVER.

DOVER, N. H., Oct. 12.—Judge John Young in the superior court here today gave the following sentences: Joseph Dumas of Somersworth, charged with a criminal assault upon Teresa Donohue of that place on July 23d and declared to be of unsound mind, committed to the insane asylum at Concord, until discharged by due course of law; thirty years at hard labor in the state prison for Joseph Udean of Somersworth, who was found guilty of a criminal assault upon each of his three juvenile nieces.

INDIANA TOUR ENDED.

EVANSVILLE, INDIANA, Oct. 12.—Governor Roosevelt concluded his tour of Indiana today, by making two speeches before large audiences. The governor was received at the St. George hotel and reviewed a parade in his honor. Tonight he made a speech in reply to that of Mr. Bryan yesterday.
The Roosevelt train will leave here tomorrow morning, for a two days' tour of Kentucky.

THE PENDLETON WRECKED.

PORTLAND, ME., Oct. 12.—The schooner E. J. Pendleton, reported as among the vessels lost in the Strait of Canso, is undoubtedly the Eliza J. Pendleton, as she was on that part of the coast at the time. The Pendleton was bound from Baltimore to Boston. She was built in Belfast in 1890 and was owned there. She was of 672 tons.

WILL REPAIR THE FLAGSHIP.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—As the North Atlantic squadron will not start on its annual southern trip until December 6th, the navy department has decided to utilize the intervening two months in necessary repairs to the flagship.

A HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 12.—A horrible tragedy has occurred in the mining town of Trenton. Two children of A.
McKay were born to death by a mad dog and Mrs. McKay was badly injured before help could be procured.

MINERS ADJOURN.

Strikers' Convention Takes No Definite Action.

MEETS AGAIN TODAY, TO CONSIDER
MINE OPERATIVES' OFFER.

GENERALLY BELIEVED IN SCRANTON THAT NO AGREEMENT WILL BE REACHED.

SCRANTON, PENN., Oct. 12.—A body of 857 miners, who hold in their hands the power to end or continue the great strike that has been in progress in the anthracite coal region for more than three weeks, met in convention here today, to consider the ten per cent. net advance in wages offered by the mine operatives, and adjourned until tomorrow. Both sessions today were devoted to the organization of the convention and to speeches by many of the delegates on the mine owners' concessions.
The convention, after permanent organization had been effected, went at once into secret session. It is learned from an authoritative source that nothing definite was done leading to a solution of what is, to the miners, a knotty problem. From the trend of the delegates' remarks it is gleaned that the ten per cent. proposition, as it now stands, has but little chance of being accepted.
Great stress is being laid by the delegates on the necessity of abolishing the sliding scale. The proposition to have the mine operatives guarantee a fixed time for paying the advance was thoroughly discussed. The mode of procedure is now occupying the miners' leaders, in case the convention should arrive at a definite understanding regarding the offer, for, as the operatives have repeatedly declared that they would not recognize the union, the question arises, how are they to be advised of the action of the convention?
It is the general belief here tonight that the convention will fail to come to any definite agreement. A movement was on foot to submit the various propositions of the delegates to a committee for consideration, this committee to report at this or a second convention.
This suggestion, however, did not gain much of a start. Some of the delegates think the whole matter should be left to the national officers. That President Mitchell is very popular among the miners was shown by the enthusiasm displayed during his opening address.

AMERICAN LEAGUE MATTERS.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The managers of the American Baseball league, at a meeting here today, decided to permit no American league player to be farmed out to a minor club and to allow no National league club to loan any of its players to an American league team. Resolutions were passed, after quite a discussion, that the number of players on each team shall be

NATIVE JUDGES ARE BAD

Taft Commission's Charges Against Filipinos.

WOULD SUBSTITUTE AMERICANS.

Condition of Judiciary in Manila Is Such That It Must Be Completely Reorganized—Other News From the New Civil Governors.

Manila, Oct. 12.—The Taft commission at its last session passed eight bills, among which were those providing for increases of 33 1/3 per cent in salaries of the native teachers of Manila and vicinity; appropriating $7,500 for the erection of a garbage incinerator and the bills for reorganizing the insular auditor's office and the forestry bureau.

Mr. Wright's bill appropriating $1,000,000 gold from the insular treasury for a continuation of harbor improvements under modified Spanish plans had a hearing yesterday. There was an audience of important commercial representatives. Mr. McLeod, representing the International Chamber of Commerce, spoke in opposition to the appropriation. He said that the merchants had paid since American occupation $3,000,000 in special taxes for harbor improvements, and he could see no reason for further appropriation. He also objected to the clause in the bill placing the work under the control of the chief engineer, Captain Bidle, saying that as the merchants would have to pay for the entire work they should have representation on the board controlling construction, as in the Spanish regime.

The administration of Manila's civil courts by Filipino magistrates, which has long been scandalous, is now attracting public attention more than ever and has been brought to the Taft commission's attention with requests for rectification. The courts are composed of four justices of the peace and four juvenile courts. The magistrates are all Filipinos, and developments have proved that the incumbents are utter failures as administrators of justice. The dissatisfaction with and complaints against the existing courts are unending. Natives and foreigners dread litigation, knowing the facts in the case.

Serious Charges Filed.

Charges have been filed and evidence is in the hands of the authorities which it is claimed, will show that the magistrates have been guilty of the grossest corruption and malfeasance in office. One magistrate was recently suspended on suspicion of criminal abuse of power and attempt to defraud. The monthly collection of fines of the four native justices is estimated at $6,000. The amount collected by the primary courts for the same period is much greater. The eight magistrates persistently ignore the regulations established by the authorities for the supervision of commitments and the accountability of moneys. They deposit less than $100 monthly and are alleged to appropriate the balance of their collections.

It is further claimed that the magistrates are in collusion with the native police in committing offenses on the basis of "cash for freedom" and that in many instances magistrates who committed men to jail over a year ago are now liberating them without trial.

The members of the commission are disgusted with these conditions and intend to substitute honest Americans from the United States for the native magistrates. Americans having a knowledge of Spanish are preferred, but they are the hardest to secure. The commission will then institute the drastic reforms needed in the case of the entire judiciary.

No Overturn to Denmark.

Washington, Oct. 12.—It has been learned at the state department that no overtures recently had been made by the United States government to Denmark for the purchase of the Danish West Indies. The last negotiations, which took place in the late spring, were suspended owing to the discovery of the Danish officials of a feeling of hostility on the part of the Danish people against the proposed sale. Whatever has been accomplished since that time has been in Denmark, and it is inferred from the tone of the press dispatches that the popular opposition to the transfer is diminishing. If this be so, then the United States government would again be ready to discuss the subject at the point where the negotiations were interrupted.

British Elections.

London, Oct. 12.—In the pollings in the parliamentary general election yesterday the Ministerialists gained two seats, making their total gain 30, as against 20 for the opposition. In Sutherlandshire F. S. Leverton-Gower, Liberal-Unionist, defeated John McLeod, Liberal, who held the seat in the late parliament, and in the Southport division of southwest Lancashire Mr. B. Marshall Hall, Conservative, wrested the seat from Sir George Augustus Pilkington, who secured it in the by-election last year. The constitution of the new house, thus far, is as follows: Ministerialists, 374; opposition, 288.

Spanish Gunboats for Rebels.

Philadelphia, Oct. 12.—On their way from Portsmouth navy yard the two little gunboats Alvarado and Saubral passed this city bound for Annapolis, where they will be used by the naval cadets for instruction. They will go through the Harlan canal and will go to the Chesapeake and Delaware canal to Cheapeake bay. These boats were captured in Cuban waters during the Spanish war, brought to this country and repaired. They are twin boats, 110 feet long, 15 feet 6 inches in breadth of beam and 5 feet 6 inches mean draft.

Lipson's Challenge Is Here.

New York, Oct. 12.—The White Star liner Germanic, on which Sir Thomas Lipton has forwarded his second challenge to the New York Yacht club for the America's cup, has been reported south of Fire Island. The Germanic left Liverpool on Oct. 3 and Queenstown on Oct. 4. She is a day late on account of rough weather and fog.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

As officially announced by the census bureau, the population of the state of Connecticut in 1900 is 908,355 as compared with a population in 1890 of 746,258, showing an increase since 1890 of 102,097, or 21.7 per cent. This is a little higher rate of increase than that of the decade from 1880 to 1890, when it was 18.8 per cent.

The west coast of the island of Leyte is in a state of turmoil. The Filipinos are actively plundering, the disturbers following old tactics, raiding and attacking and then retreating to the garrisoned towns, while the Americans pursue in the mountains. General Mojica's officers are surrendering, and his soldiers, attempting to escape to Samar in boats, are being captured and his organization broken up.

Youtsey Still Unconscious.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 12. The report from Henry Youtsey's sick room last night are not encouraging. The only change perceptible is that his stupor is not quite so heavy. Once or twice yesterday he lifted his hands an inch or two and in a weak piping voice repeated, "There's no blood on my hands." His physicians fear brain fever, which would now almost surely prove fatal.

STRIKE MAY CONTINUE.

The Convention Will Probably Reject Advance.

OTHER CONCESSIONS ARE SOUGHT.

Operators Must Give Guarantees of Continuance of Railroads of Wings, Some Delegates Will Insist on the Recognition of the Union.

Seranton, Pa., Oct. 12.—There is every likelihood that the strike in the anthracite region will last for a fortnight longer. Delegates to the convention of strikers are pouring into Seranton from every direction, and as their number increases it becomes more evident that the 10 per cent offer will be rejected by a vast majority.

President Mitchell estimates that the number of delegates will reach 1,000.

Some have come with instructions, while others are free to vote as they see fit. The instructions vary, but most of those who may be expected to sway the convention are firm in the belief that the offer of 10 per cent increase in wages will be rejected.

There are other grievances upon which great stress is laid, and the hope is expressed that the operators will be compelled to grant further concessions.

It is learned that the leaders are working to have the convention adjourn after passing resolutions rejecting the offer and authorizing an executive board to enter into negotiations with the operators and to accept any terms deemed advantageous.

The executive board will have authority to continue the strike for two weeks at the utmost, bringing the date as close to election day as is thought safe.

If no better terms can be obtained by that time the strike will be declared off, and the men will accept the proposed rate.

There may, of course, be some hitch, but this plan meets with the approval of the leaders, who believe that they will be able to carry it through.

The chief objectors will be men who have already felt the pinch of hunger and whose families are suffering. These favor ending the strike immediately. There will be many voices raised in the convention, which will last two days.

From an authoritative source it is learned that a meeting was held yesterday by presidents of coal roads in Courtland street, New York city. The main subject under discussion was the Seranton convention, and the advices received from confidential sources were that the 10 per cent offer would not be accepted.

The decision reached was to offer no further concessions under any circumstances.

After the proceedings of the convention are made public the operators will issue a formal address defining their position and showing their reasons for remaining firm.

Wilkesbarre Delegates Instructed.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 12.—The Wilkesbarre assemblies of the United Mine Workers held meetings yesterday and instructed the delegates to the Seranton convention to insist on the following demands: First, recognition of the union; second, powder reduced to $1.50; third, 10 per cent general advance; fourth, two weeks' pay; fifth, check docking bonus; sixth, a contract signed by the companies agreeing to the above to hold good for one year. The instruction of the delegates comes in the nature of a surprise, as it was expected they would be allowed to use their own judgment after taking their seats in the convention and learning the sentiments of the other delegates.

KAISER AS A ROMAN.

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 12.—General Gobin and Sheriff Toodle yesterday visited Oenida, the scene of the fatal strike riot. They returned and reported everything quiet in and around Oenida. General Gobin, however, issued orders for the Governor's troop of cavalry to leave at once for Oenida. The general says he does not anticipate any further outbreak at Oenida, but that the people there are nervous and excited since the rioting occurred, and he thinks the presence of the troops will have a pacifying effect.

Lieutenant Blakeman Dead.

Washington, Oct. 12.—General MacArthur in Manila has notified the war department that First Lieutenant Robert Blakeman, Forty-ninth volunteer infantry, died from inflammation of the liver on Oct. 3. Lieutenant Blakeman was born in Hinsdale, Ill., on Dec. 10, 1870, and served as first sergeant of Company K of the Eighth Illinois volunteer infantry in the Spanish-American war. In September, 1898, he was appointed first lieutenant of the Forty-ninth volunteer infantry and accompanied his regiment to the Philippines in November last.

Lipton Admits Pork Corner.

London, Oct. 12.—In an interview Sir Thomas Lipton admitted that he had cornered pork in the United States, but denied that he intended to make a squeeze. He said: "Yes. It is a fact that I today practically control all the pork in the United States. I have no intention of raising the price to an exorbitant degree. I am perfectly satisfied to make a fair profit out of the deal, and I shall do all that is possible to avoid causing serious trouble to those who sold short. In fact, I let some go the other day in order to save a few threatened failures."

Yellow Fever Grows Worse.

Havana, Oct. 12.—In the systematic attempt to control the yellow fever outbreak, in accordance with orders from General Wood, Major Gorgas and his staff inspect more than 600 houses daily, with a view of enforcing cleanliness. Ninety-eight new cases have been reported since Oct. 1. Major Peterson, chief commissioner, and Frank Hayes, general manager of the Havana branch of the North American trust company, are believed to have the fever.

RELIEF IN SIX HOURS.

Chinese Proposals Approved With Reservations.

EQUITABLE INDEMNITIES WANTED.

This clause of French Note Acceptable to the President—Three Other Propositions Must Wait Action by Congress—Punishment of Guilty.

Washington, Oct. 12.—In direct opposition to the implied wishes of the United States Count von Waldersee, the German commander in chief in China, has sent an expedition to Pao-ting-fu, and his action may cause consequences in the southern provinces which the authorities fear to contemplate.

Believing that foreigners and their interests can best be protected by bringing about the early return of peace, Secretary Hay has sent to the French and other governments his reply to the French proposals, in which he states that the president "would be pleased to see the negotiations begun immediately upon the usual certification of credentials."

At the end of his note the secretary states that "the president believes that the governments of France and the other powers will see in the reserves we have made here no obstacle to the initiation of negotiations on the lines suggested, and he hopes that it will be found practicable to begin such negotiations at an early day."

To guard against delay by discussion the president has endorsed the suggestion of the Russian government that in case of protracted divergence of views the matter of the indemnity which China must pay might be referred to the consideration of the international court of arbitration of The Hague.

In the demand of Li Hung Chang for the return of the $278,000 seized by American marines at Tien-tsin the authorities see the purpose of the Chinese commissioners to offset the claims for indemnity to be made by the powers by counter claims for the damage to private and government property which was not in accord with the rules of war.

Wu Discredits Risian.

Wu Ting Fa, the Chinese minister, asserts that there is no danger of an uprising in southern China and has so assured Secretary Hay. The authorities fear, however, that unless something is quickly done to support the position of the viceroys, who have so successfully held their people in check, there may be an outbreak. It is proposed by this government to insist that the viceroys receive appropriate reward for their conduct.

The full reply of the state department to the French note relative to the bases of Chinese negotiations is as follows:

"The government of the United States agrees with that of France in recognizing as the object to be obtained from the government of China appropriate reparation for the past and substantial guarantees for the future.

"The president is glad to perceive in the bases of negotiations put forward in the memorandum of Oct. 4 the spirit that has animated the declarations heretofore made by all the powers interested and would be pleased to see the negotiations begin immediately upon the usual verification of credentials."

"It may be convenient to enumerate the clauses of the memorandum and to add some observations dictated by the attitude of the United States in the present circumstances.

Directions:—One small glass full four times a day, before eating and going to bed.

First.—The punishment of the guilty parties who may be designated by the representatives of the powers at Peking.

"The Chinese government has already indicated its intention to punish a number of those responsible for the recent disorders. The representatives of the powers at Peking may suggest additions to that list when negotiations are entered upon.

"Second.—The continuance of the interdiction against the importation of arms.

"It is not understood that this interdiction is to be permanent, and the duration of it and the details of its regulation seem a proper subject of discussion by the negotiators.

"Third.—Equitable indemnities for the governments, corporations and private individuals.

"This is an object desired by all the powers. The Russian government has suggested that in case of protracted divergence of views this matter might be referred to the consideration of the international court of arbitration of The Hague. The president thinks this suggestion worthy the attention of the powers.

"Fourth.—The organization in Peking of a permanent guard for the legations.

"The government of the United States is unable to make any permanent engagement of this nature without the authorization of the legislative branch, but in the present emergency we have stationed in Peking an adequate legion guard.

President Reserves Decision.

"Fifth.—Dismantling of the forts at Taku.

"The president reserves the expression of his opinion as to this measure pending the receipt of further information in regard to the situation in China.

"Sixth.—The military occupation of two or three points on the road from Tien-tsin to Peking.

"The same observation which has been made in reference to No. 4 applies also to this proposition. The president is unable to commit the United States to a permanent participation in such occupation, but he thinks it desirable that the powers shall obtain from the Chinese government the assurance of their right to guard their legations in Peking and to have the means of unrestricted access to them whenever required.

"The president believes that the governments of France and the other powers will see in the reserves we have made no obstacle to the initiation of negotiations on the lines suggested, and he hopes it will be found practicable to begin such negotiations at an early day."

Colonel Humphrey, quartermaster in China, sent word from Taku to the quartermaster general announcing the departure of the first American troops from China. The Kinchuk sailed Wednesday for Manila with forage, quartermaster animals and Company D, Sixth cavalry, and the Indiana left yesterday with about 900 marines.

THE BLUEBIRD.

A glint of blue sits 'neath the sky
Amid the many Maytings,
A living gem, light winged and shy,
Enjoying its brief playtime.

Now perched upon an aerie spray
That bonds beneath its lightness,
It gives unto the dewy day
A soft and sudden brightness,

And from its little throbbing throat
Comes "Twitter, twitter, twitter!"
A sweet, a swift, a slender note,
But never one that's bitter.

A cheery voice that tells of spring,
At rosy dawn and after—
The busy bluebird caroling
A song of love and laughter.

SAVE STEPS AND TIME.

Economy In Action That Tells It Is the Loading of Brick Scows.

A curious illustration of the saying that may be affected by economizing steps is found in the manner of unloading brick scows. The great scows that come down the North river from Haverstraw with bricks will carry 250,000 bricks, and some of them more. Such scows will carry a load of 600 tons. Sometimes there are as many as a dozen brick scows in a single tug.

The big scows carry each a crew of four or five men usually five. One man could handle the boat, but the crew is hired for the season to handle the bricks. A dozen men work at loading the scow, wheeling the bricks aboard in wheelbarrows. The men in the crew can stack the bricks up as fast as the 12 men with wheelbarrows can bring them aboard. The bricks are stacked in such a manner that the scow can be hoisted considerably without losing any overboard.

Sometimes, if they are to be taken some little distance back from the edge of the wharf, the bricks are carried off in barrows, but usually they are carried off by hand. And here, with the men going back and forth many times a day, is a place where every step counts, for, of course, the shorter the distance the men will have to carry the bricks the less time it will take to unload them, so the customary manner of unloading a scow is this:

The men take off the bricks back to the center line of the boat. As they continue taking bricks from one side only, the side nearest the wharf, the boat rises in the water on that side, while the other sinks correspondingly, but the bricks are so stowed that they don't slide off. When the men have taken back to the center line they stop and simply turn the boat around and bring the loaded side to the wharf. It may take some little time to do this, depending on the situation of things, and during this time, of course, no bricks can be carried, but they could move the scow a considerable distance and yet save time in the unloading by turning her around, and so much time is saved by thus bringing the remaining bricks nearer the wharf. Unloading in this manner, five men can do the work as quickly as seven men could working straight across.—New York Sun.

MAGICAL CLEVERNESS.

Dr. Conan Doyle must have some of the peculiar upthrust of Sherlock Holmes, the detective who walks his pages. But, as The Bookman tells us, he refers his idea of the character to an old professor of medicine at the Edinburgh university.

This man would sit in the patients' waiting room, with a face like a Red Indian, and diagnose the people as they came in, even before they had opened their mouths. He would tell them their symptoms and he would give them details of their lives.

"Gentlemen," he would say to the students standing about, "I am not quite certain whether this man is a cork cutter or a slander. I observe a slight callous or hardening on one side of his forehead and a little thickening on the outside of his thumb. That is a sure sign that he is either the one or the other."

His deductions were very dramatic.

"Ah," he would say to another man,
"you are a soldier, a noncommissioned officer, and you have served in Bermuda.
Now, gentlemen, how did I know that?
He came into the room without taking off his hat, as he would go into an orderly room. He was a soldier. A slightly authoritative air, combined with his age, shows that he was a noncommissioned officer. A rash on his forehead tells me he was in Bermuda and subject to a certain rash known only there."

THE FARMER WAS RENDY.

A well to do Georgia farmer invited a merchant friend to dine with him. The merchant was known for his crankiness and had once or twice tried to shoot people for imagined wrongs. The farmer had considerable business dealings with him, and they were on the best of terms. However, the farmer always kept a wary eye on him.

Several days after the dinner at the farmer's house the merchant said to him:
"I can't account for the queer feelings and impulses I have occasionally. For instance, the other day when I was dining at your table it suddenly came into my mind to kill you, though I had nothing in the world against you. I had a pistol in my pocket at the time, and once I had my hand on it, when the strange feeling passed from me."

"Don't let that bother you," said the farmer. "I know all about your fallin's in that line, an I wasn't asleep when I saw your hand to your hip. My son John was standin' in the hallway back of you with a shotgun leveled at you, an you just did save your bacon by changin' your mind. If you hadn't, he'd've blown dry-light through you!"—Atlanta Constitution.

THE BORN TEACHER IS A RARE TYPE.

"Your born teacher is as rare as a poet and as likely to die young. Once in a while a college gets hold of one. It does not always know that it has him and proceeds to ruin him by overdriving the moment he shows power or to let another college lure him away for a few hundred dollars more a year. But while he lasts, and sometimes, fortunately, he lasts till the end of a long life, he transforms the lecture hall as by enchantment. Lucky is the alumnus who can call the roll of his instructors, and among the martinetts and the potants and the plausibly inane can here and there come suddenly upon a man —a man who taught him to think or helped him to feel and thrilled him with a new horizon!—B. F. Perry in Scribner's.

INEVITABLE.

"Perhaps you would like to do the shopping for the family yourself," she exclaimed.

"Perhaps you would like to undertake the responsibility of providing the funds," he retorted.

Then both shuddered and realized that there was no use of trying to settle the question. It was the old, old dispute between capital and labor.—Washington

THE GOLD OF THE WORLD.

It is $8,781,828,700, and Three Countries Yielded Half of It In Fifty Years.
All the gold mined in the world from the date of the discovery of America to the close of the fiscal year of 1895 is placed by the statists of the various governments at $8,781,828,700.

It is interesting to know that nearly half of this total for over 400 years has been taken out of three countries in less than 50 years. Since the days of 1810 California and the contiguous states have given up $2,025,416,000. Gold was discovered in Australia in 1851. In New South Wales, New Zealand, Queensland, Tasmania, Victoria and Western Australia, and the total output to date is $1,655,713, 000.

Gold in the South African Republic has only been of importance since 1890, and the total at the end of the first six months of 1895 was a little less than $212,000,000.
The precious metal is today being yielded at an annual rate of $36,000,000 in the United States, $35,500,000 in Australia and $30,000,000 in South Africa. But little is ever heard of the enormous fortunes that must have been made in Australia.
The name that is pre-eminent in the history of Australian goldfields is that of Money Miller, who is said to have retired with a fortune of $25,000,000, not large enough to make him conspicuous should he live in California.

The wealth of the South African Republic has been divided among fewer men.
Barney Barnato is said to have been worth $200,000,000. Alfred Beit is the reputed owner of $100,000,000. Cecil Rhodes of $60,000,000, and the greatest of all is T. B.
Robinson, who is supposed to command $50,000,000.

The list of Americans who have become as many times millionaires through gold mines is a long one. Fully one-half of the $2,000,000,000 taken out of the mountains of the Pacific is divided among less than 20 men. The names of the more famous are part of the financial history of the world and include:

SUCCESSFUL NOVELS.

The young and aspiring author sometimes thinks, "If I could only write a successful novel, my fortune would be made."

Stories of the fabulous sums occasionally realized on a single book lead the inexperienced into erroneous conclusions. A correspondent of the Philadelphia Times, who has investigated the returns from novels,
and writes as follows:

Novels form the largest part of the book manuscripts received by publishing houses.
Out of 100 manuscripts received during a recent fortnight by a prominent publishing firm 62 were novels. The same publisher told me that sometimes the percentage of novels would reach 75 per cent.

This tendency for novel writing is undoubtedly due to the fact that the greatest "hits" in the literary world are made with novels, and this stimulates the average writer to work in this field.

Of all these novels it is plain to be seen from the figures given in the preceding paragraph that scores must be written before one is accepted, and even if a writer has a novel accepted, the percentage of success is decidedly against him.

During this investigation process I selected 15 recently published novels issued by six different houses, and I learned that the entire number printed of these 15 novels was 41,000 copies, or about 2,700 copies of each, and in this 15, 9,000 copies were printed of one novel—really the only successful novel of the lot. It is safe to say that of these 15 novels the average sale of each will not reach 1,000 copies.

But giving that number to each, the novel selling at $1, the author would receive less than $100 for his manuscript, deducting for mutilated copies and those sent to the newspapers, etc. I know case after case where authors did not receive $50 all told as a return for a novel and he was in Bermuda and subject to a certain rash known only there."

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1900.

The Hon. Bourke Cockran has repaired the puncture in his voice and it will hold wind again.

It is startling to think of what would have happened to Barbara Frietchie if W. J. Bryan had figured with her in that big episode.

Crocker proposes to set off $10,000 worth of fireworks in honor of Bryan. But the fanciest skyrocket of the whole lot will be Bryan himself.

Mark Twain is returning to America, and that's no joke either, considering that he is always dreadfully saucy throughout the entire voyage.

Maryland will give Mr. Bryan a cordial reception, but will cast her vote for McKinley, thus vindicating both her hospitality and her judgment.

Doubtless the Chicago man who committed suicide because he couldn't borrow $1,000 without security will be pointed out by W. J. Bryan as another victim of the money power.

When you find a gold democrat giving his reasons for supporting Bryan this year listen carefully, and you will discover that he is simply arguing that he did wrong in bolting Bryan in 1896.

The announcement of the election of Bryan on the 6th of November would be the signal for every man to clasp his hands upon his pocketbook, with the logical sequence of a fat-reaching financial squeeze and a panic.

We should not aid the election of a president who would admittedly, if he could, destroy the gold standard, and other things that we value even more, upon the deceptive suggestion that he has been bound—that the republican party will after defeat still have strength enough to save the temple. It will be much better not to allow the men with destructive tendencies so much as to loan against its pillars.—Ex-President Harrison in interview Thursday.

While Gen. Harrison, for reasons which must be respected, clings to the determination he made in 1880 not to engage in campaign speech-making, he has caused to be published an interview which frankly and fully expresses his opinions. These differ in some respects from the policy pursued by President McKinley, but that fact in no degree lessens Gen. Harrison's loyalty to his party or his earnest desire to have the present administration continued. He has spoken his mind with characteristic candor and force, and the result is a contribution to campaign literature which cannot fail to carry conviction to every doubting mind.

A YEAR OF ROMANCE.

With its November issue, The Century Magazine begins a year of romance, during which many of the most famous living writers of fiction will contribute to the magazine short stories, novels, or novelties. The reception accorded "The Helmet of Navarre," begun in the August number, indicates that the proposed departure will be a popular one, and with such names to conjure with as Rudyard Kipling, Mrs. Burnett, Bret Harte, Lew Wallace, Wm. Mitchell, Miss Wilkins, Winston Churchill, Howells, James, Harris, Cable, Stockton, Page, Anstey, and Ian Maclaren—to note but these few—the conductors of The Century are pretty sure to meet the tastes of all lovers of fiction.

The Century means to make its November and December numbers the most beautiful issues ever published. Color printing will be largely used.

THE VILLAGE POSTMASTER.

The Boston Post said the following of the opening night of The Village Postmaster at the Park theatre in Boston:

"At the Park theatre last evening, notwithstanding the inclement weather, there was a large audience to witness the first performance of The Village Postmaster. It is a play of rural life, telling an interesting story of intrigue and final happiness and the comedy is of the hilarious and wholesome sort.

BUSINESS MEN SHOULD ACT.

Better Car Service to Exeter and Hampton Demanded.

The local business men should make a united effort to get better electric service from Exeter, Hampton and Seabrook. Thousands of dollars which now go to Newburyport could be brought into this city if decent connection was made. It now takes over three hours to go from Portmouth to Exeter on the average. A well known Exeter gentleman remarked to the Chronicle man on Friday, "Our people want to go to Portsmouth, but it seems as though every effort was being made to prevent them. There ought to be through cars. Let the business men get together and secure what belongs to them."

COMING AGAIN SOON.

A dramatic novelty in what we are again promised in The Parish Priest, which Daniel Sully and his clever associates will present at Music Hall soon. Daniel Sully as the priest has a character as new as it is novel. The piece teaches a beautiful moral lesson and an evening spent with Daniel Sully in The Parish Priest is one not easily forgotten.

"The play does not uphold or reflect on any religious creed, but tells a story that benefits the soul, containing a smile for every sigh, a laugh for every tear. The play is mounted in an elaborate manner and the cast is one of extraordinary strength."

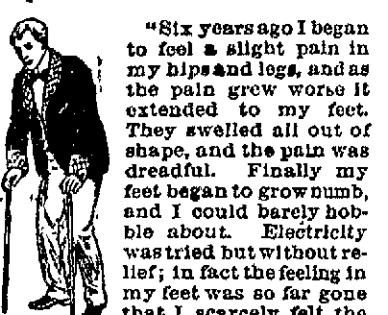

FOR TONIGHT.

The Sawtelle company, by special request, will present that beautiful rural piece, Country Courtship, which is a companion country of Way Down East, this evening. The piece has been received with the greatest pleasure where it has been produced and will be an attractive thing for the closing performance here.

BROKE AN ARM.

On Friday afternoon as David Flynn, son of James Flynn, the State street merchant, was engaged in moving a barrel of molasses, his arm was caught between the barrel and the wall and severely crushed. The bone was fractured and was treated by a physician. It will be a couple of months before the arm will be useful.

Crippled with Rheumatism

"Six years ago I began to feel a slight pain in my hip and legs, and as the pain grew worse it extended to my feet. They swelled all out of shape, and the pain was great. I could not walk, and I could hardly hobble about. Electricity wasted but without relief; in fact the feeling in my feet was so far gone that I scarcely felt the fall of a feather."

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Falsies were recommended, and I determined to try them. I made up my mind I would give them a fair trial, and so I began to take them. Two or three boxes would not cure as bad a case as mine, but I found that I had bought more than was necessary, so I stopped taking them before the time I had used five boxes, and by the time I had finished the seventh box I was entirely cured. I have no more pain, swelling or numbness than I have to-day, and that was five years ago."

MACKEREL AT THE SHOALS.

One afternoon this week the tug Howell went to the Isles of Shoals and brought in 3,000 handsome mackerel. The mackerel were shipped to New York and Boston. Had it not been for the severe storm, Portsmouth would have seen more mackerel within its limits than any time for years, for the nets at the Shoals were overcrowded with the fish.

GOOD NEWS FOR OUR READERS.

Who have scrofulous taints in their blood, and who has not? Scrofula in all its forms is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla which thoroughly purifies the blood. This disease, which frequently appears in children, is greatly to be dreaded. It is most likely to affect the glands of the neck, which become enlarged, eruptions appear on the head and face, and the eyes are frequently affected. Upon its first appearance, perhaps in slight eruptions or pimples, scrofula should be entirely eradicated from the system by a thorough course of Hood's Sarsaparilla to prevent all the painful and sickening consequences of running scrofulous sores which drain the system, sap the strength and make existence utterly wretched.

METHODIST CHURCH.

For the time being all the regular services of the church will be made preparatory to a series of revival services. The Sunday morning service begins at 10:30, the Junior League at 3:30 p.m., the Epworth League at 6:15, and the evening service at 7:30 p.m. Tomorrow morning the sermon subject will be "The Soul." In the evening the subject will be "The Devil." All who do not attend elsewhere are cordially invited.

THESEWERSOFPARIS

WHAT THE VISITOR MAY SEE ON A TRIP THROUGH THEM.

Great Tunnels, With Waterways and Boats, Railways and Cars—A Perfect Subway System—Thrilling Blasts on Signal Horns and What They Mean.

One of the most unique bits of sight seeing anywhere in the world may be enjoyed in Paris during the spring and summer months. It consists of nothing less than a trip by rail and boat across the city, not through the streets and along the Seine, not even by balloon or flying machine overhead, but underground, through the great sewers.

In order to visit these subterranean wonders, you must write a note to the prefect de ville, asking for passes. The sewers are open for inspection twice a week from May 1 until Sept. 30, always providing that the days fixed are perfectly clear. If the permit sent you say "good for next Friday," and on that day there should be clouds, no amount of American money could bribe a way down.

The parties descend at the same hour, one entering by means of a stone flight of steep stairs, at the Place de la Madeleine and the other at the Place du Chatelet. The steps run down between gray stone walls and are just wide enough to admit of one person's descending at a time.

If you make your descent at the Place de la Madeleine, on reaching the bottom of the steps you find yourself standing on a long platform, with a wide canal in which water is running slowly past you to the right, down into darkness and distance.

Looking to the left, you see a brilliantly lighted, arched stone tunnel, through which the canal runs, with a narrow stone "tow path" on each side.

Overhead you see a huge pipe, held to the center and top of the arched roof by iron loops. It is through this pipe that Paris is supplied with all her "common" water, for in this city they have to grades of water. That in this large pipe is taken from the Seine and is used for flushing the streets, to water the gardens, to extinguish fires—in fact, for everything except cooking and drinking.

Next to the big pipe is another of about one-half its capacity, and through this is carried the pure spring water which the people drink.

Next you will see a heavy cable made of many ropes, all covered, so as not to come in contact with each other or be damaged by dampness. By these cables are transmitted all the different forces used in the city. There are the pneumatic tubes, through which you may send a letter across the city, as "change" is sent in our retail shops. Then there are the electric wires, for messages or light, and the pipes transmitting condensed air, which city cells to those wishing to use it.

Glancing along the walls of the arch, you see numbers at regular intervals which correspond with those of the houses in the street above and make it easy to locate any trouble and rectify it. You can, if you happen to live in any of the streets under which you pass, see your own address at a little underground opening that corresponds to the big doorway above, where you run in and out every day.

DRY DOCK CONTRACTOR HERE

John Peirce, the contractor who is the man at the head of the concern building the mammoth new dry dock at the yard, paid his first visit to the scene of operations on Friday. He had been on a tour of his granite quarries down-east and stopped off during the day to confer with his superintendent, Lee H.
Treadwell, and to inspect the work.

A Herald representative enjoyed a pleasant chat with him and found him one of the most pleasant business men that it is the pleasure of a reporter to greet. He states that the work of shipping the granite here for the dock will commence next week and that most of the stone will be cut here. He will employ fifty stone cutters on the start and local men will be given employment.

Mr. Peirce is a large contractor and employs thousands of men and is at present erasing the immense government building in Chicago. Only union stone cutters are employed and they receive thirty-five cents per hour for their work. It will be necessary for local workmen to join the union before going to work.

He was much pleased with the progress of work and fully believes that the dock will be completed on time, and will be the finest dock in the world.

IN BAD CONDITION.

Portsmouth passengers to Boston this week say that the Salem tunnel is in very bad condition on account of the flow of sewage into the place during the recent rains. It was so strong that it almost smothered passengers who stood on the platform of a train as it passed through. When the water runs off part of the fifth will go back with it, part remains to contaminate the air of the city. The water was as high in the tunnel at that time as ever known, save in a heavy rain. The trains could just crawl through.

is little hope in the case.

It appears that the stealing of the large amount of bedding from the farm of Thomas W. Rand of Rye was a kind of drunken freak. Mr. Rand's wife died the day before and many of the things put out upon the grass came from her death bed.
